The most valuable part of today was...

1. Subcommittee Work
2. Speakers were very informative.
3. Hearing from principals.
4. Thought Tom had a good idea.
5. That the exchange between State’s Attorney rep and Wootton principal is something to pursue.
6. Hearing from the administrators.
7. Getting more work done with subcommittees.
8. The talks by the principals and the feedback given.
9. Time with Committee.
10. Speakers.
11. Hearing from the principals regarding the work they are doing with students around cyberbullying.
12. Hearing from subcommittee members.
13. Principals presentations.
14. Hearing principals speak.
15. It was nice hearing from the principals about how they had tried to implement cybercivility at their schools.
16. Talking to my subcommittee.
17. Floating to groups.
18. Dr. Doran and Ms. Deeny.
19. Listening to principals who see these things every day.
20. The different ways the principals integrated their actions toward cybercivility.

Today would have been better if ...

1. Presentations are nice, but we’re really winding down on attendance. We need structured time to work. Inertia takes over on our own, in spite of trying.

2. More time for Q & A with the speakers.
3. More time had been given for questions.
4. Time was allocated a little more evenly (too much time at beginning, not enough subcommittee time).
5. Originally I was disappointed more people weren't here, but this was great! Our team (small as it was) was very productive!
6. Didn't have time for subcommittee group work.
7. Today was a good meeting.
8. Everything was fine.
9. Greater attendance.
10. We had more discussion/sharing time without cutting into subcommittee time.
11. Today was great!
12. We could have asked more questions to the last speaker.

Other Comments/Suggestions ...

1. Michael Doran comments were good reminder about perspective – focusing on positive and proper role of school.
2. More principals/vice principals to speak.
3. Very good meeting.
4. How will the campaign be decided?
5. Thanks for the snacks.
6. Know more about outcomes for tagline campaign.
7. At least 1 – 2 more meetings before the presentation.
8. Let's get a handout of those 7 laws that Stephen mentioned.
