

Native Americans of the U.S.

One possible resource used to locate information is the Internet. Click on the URLs (web addresses) below to locate facts about specific Native American tribes. Don't forget to cite your sources.

First Americans

<http://www.ic.arizona.edu/ic/kmartin/School/index.htm>

Native American Facts For Kids Sheetz

<http://www.native-languages.org/kids.htm>

Learn About Native Americans

<http://www.ahsd25.k12.il.us/Curriculum%20Info/NativeAmericans/index.html>

Information about American Indians

<http://www.indians.org/index.html>

Native American Cultures

<http://orchard.sbschools.net/library/links/third.htm#Native%20Americans>

Native American culture areas: the Arctic, the Subarctic, the Northeast, the Southeast, the Plains, the Southwest, the Great Basin, California, the Northwest Coast and the Plateau

<http://www.history.com/topics/native-american-cultures>

Native American Indian Cultural Areas

<http://www.native-languages.org/culture-areas.htm>

North American indigenous people

<http://www.infoplease.com/encyclopedia/1naind.html>

Native American Student Resources – created by 5th & 6th graders
http://www.mce.k12tn.net/indians/navigation/native_american_chart.htm

Native Americans from KidInfo
http://www.kidinfo.com/American_History/Native_Americans.html

The Plains Indians
<http://www.nps.gov/archive/foia/indians.htm>

The Lakota
<http://1onewolf.com/lakota/index.htm#sitemap>

National Museum of the American Indian
<http://nmai.si.edu/home/>

Carnegie Museum of Natural History
<http://www.carnegiemnh.org/online/indians/index.html>