Art

About Me

I am the part-time art teacher here at Olney and I am very excited to work with the Olney students this school year! I am originally from New York where I loved to do gymnastics and went on to receive a scholarship where I was able to continue my love for gymnastics and get an Art Education degree at Towson University. When at Towson, I student taught at Olney under the supervision of Jill Henderson and after teaching in the county for six years, I have finally made my way back here to the Olney community. I look forward to seeing what new and original art masterpieces my students will be able to create this year!
