NATIONAL SOCIETY OF HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS

NEW! It is that time of year – letters from the National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS) start arriving. Please know that the counselors and/or school staff at Northwest High School have not nominated your son or daughter, because this organization is for-profit. We support the National Honor Society (NHS) which has a chapter at Northwest High School and is non-profit. The National Honor Society (NHS) is respected and honored by colleges and universities.

Here is some basic information: The National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS) is a for-profit national organization established in 2002. Their website states that “NSHSS is a distinguished academic honor society, committed to recognizing and serving the highest-achieving student scholars in more than 26,000 high schools across 170 countries. With access to valuable resources and a network of more than 2 million exceptional peers spanning high school to college and career, NSHSS scholars embody academic dedication and outstanding leadership in their schools, workplaces, and communities.” NSHSS is operated from a corporate office in Atlanta, Georgia and invites you to explore the benefits of membership.

Recognitions such as NSHSS, often referred to as Vanity Awards, should be checked out thoroughly before a payment is made to the organization.

It should also be noted that joining NSHSS, or similar types, will not cast a student in a more favorable light or give them any advantage in the college application process.
